

LOL 2

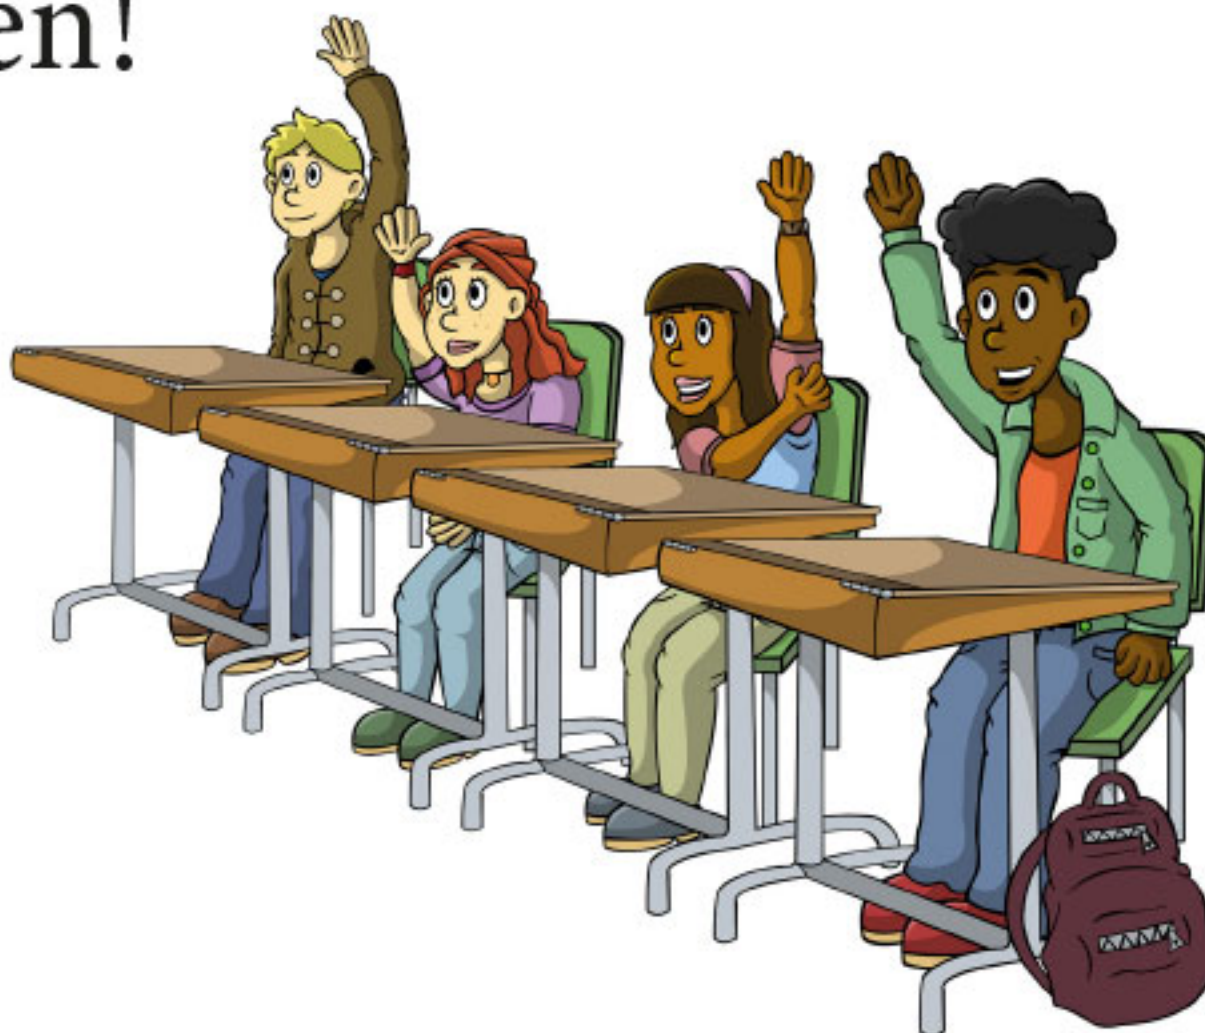

TEXTBOOK
IN ENGLISH

Catrin Ankh

1. They are really cool in Sweden!

Would you like to have vacation forever? Just lazing on the beach.

Or maybe just lazing in front of the computer...

When school starts again after the vacation the lazing is over!

In school you need to learn things all the time.

You learn math, you read and write in Swedish.

Maybe you learn about history and religions as well... But what's most important?

Maybe you would say that your friends in school are.

That's what Sue, Anne, Tom and Jim think, anyway.

So what do friends do together? Mostly, they talk. Talking and communication is important to everybody. That's why we need languages, to communicate.

Important - Viktigt

Anyway - I alla fall

What do friends do - Vad gör vänner

Mostly - Mest

Communication - Kommunikation

Languages - Språk

Learn things all the time -

Lära sig saker hela tiden

Vacation - Semester

Lazing - Lata sig, hänga

1. They are really cool in Sweden!

Dialogue

Teacher: What language do we speak?

Tom: English, of course.

Teacher: Why?

Jim: Because we were born in England.

Anne: I wasn't born here!

Sue: Me neither.

Tom: My parents weren't born here. But I was.

Teacher: But still, you speak English.

Sue: Of course we do!

Anne: They speak English in lots of countries.

Teacher: Very good, Anne! What countries?

Sue: India!

Anne: Ireland!

Sue: USA!

Jim: Australia!

Tom: Jamaica!

Anne: Canada! And a lot of African countries as well!

Teacher: Very good!

Tom: And Sweden!

Teacher, Anne, Sue and Jim: What? Sweden?

Tom: Yes! They speak English in Sweden.

Teacher: They speak Swedish, Tom. But in school, they also learn English.

Jim: Do they learn our language?

Anne: Wow! They are really cool in Sweden!

We were born - Vi föddes
I wasn't born - Jag föddes inte
Me neither - Inte jag heller

But still - Men ändå, men fortfarande
In lots of countries - I många länder

6. Films and feelings

Dialogue

Jim: Look! The American lady!

Sue: She's at the cinema too!

Lady: Oh, hi, kids!

Tom: Hello.

Anne: Did you like to be a tourist in London?

Lady: Yes, I liked almost everything. The Tower was scary, though.

Anne: Like a horror movie?

Lady: Ho ho, yes, something like that.

Now it will be nice to sit down and watch a film.

Anne: I think you're so cool with your hair and everything. I'm glad we met!

Lady: Thank you, dear. I'm glad too. So, you want to see this film too?

Sue: Maybe.

Lady: It's a great film! It's got everything!

Action, horror, lots of jokes, and even some grief.

Jim: Wow! That must be our film!

Do you like to be - Tycker du om att vara
Almost everything - Nästan allting

Scary - Läskigt
Grief - Sorg

Exercise

Who do they meet at the cinema?

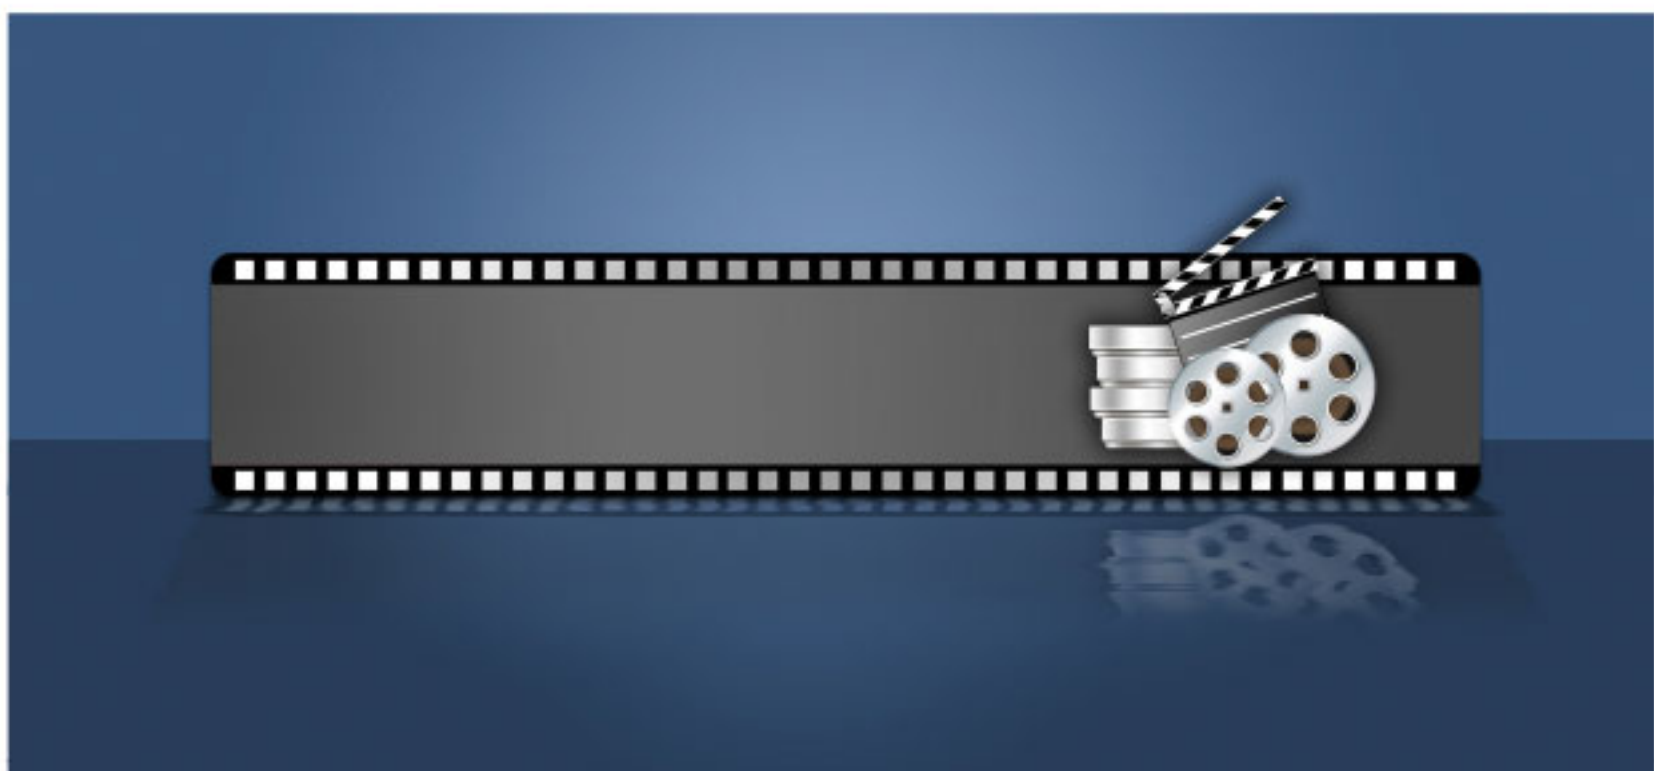

.....

What did the lady think about the Tower?

.....

What does she say about the film?

.....

Exercise

Who is the man?

.....

What is he looking for?

.....

Why do the kids need alibis?

.....

Do the kids know the victim?

.....

What did Sherlock remember?

.....

Dialogue

Anne: This was really spooky!

Sue: Yes. I'm glad we're on the bus on our way home.

Anne: Me too.

Sue: Did we really meet Sherlock Holmes?

Anne: I don't know... I think so.

Sue: It was scary, anyway.

Anne: Time for a laugh!

- What's a ghost's favorite dessert?

- I-scream!

Sue: LOL! Here's another one:

One ghost said to another ghost:

- I'm sorry, but I just don't believe in people.

Exercise

Work in pairs

Read the two jokes again. Talk about them. Why are they funny?

On our way home - På väg hem
Scary - Låskigt

Time for - Dags för
Laugh - Skratt

Exercise

What does Anne have to say if she wants:

Example:

A big spider

1. I would like a big spider.
2. Can I have a big spider, please?

A wild tiger

- 1.....
- 2.....

A swimming shark

- 1.....
- 2.....

A jumping monkey

- 1.....
- 2.....

An angry mouse

- 1.....
- 2.....